

Kendra Prospero

kendra@turningthecornerllc.com
303-898-6156
www.kendraprospero.com

One Sheet

Speaker and CEO Kendra Prospero empowers organizations and leaders to build winning teams and transform their company cultures in the process. Kendra Prospero is a human resources expert who delivers highly engaging keynote presentations that help founders and leaders transform how they think and feel about work. She knows employers benefit when their team members feel included, are happier, and are more productive. Her philosophy is that we give up the best hours of our days and years of our lives for work, and we should love our jobs.

Her signature keynotes are:

- The Path to Profitability Is Your People
- Get Off the Recruiting Treadmill
- On Becoming More Diverse
- Building a Bench of Talent

Audiences love Kendra's straightforward approach to keeping employee engagement a top priority for leaders. Her gifts include helping leaders understand how to create the conditions for their employees to thrive, and how that turns into profit. Every organization needs to get ahead of the curve to ensure they are an employer of choice.

Before founding Turning the Corner, an award-winning Human Resources consulting firm and "Best Place to Work", Kendra worked for many years as a Software Engineer for IBM but felt she was struggling in a career that left her dying on the vine. Turning the Corner is a result of her following her passion for helping others as the CEO and Founder of one of the few firms in the nation that supports growing small businesses with all their people needs.

Kendra loves helping people get results, leading her team to greater places, and challenging us all to change the world one job at a time.

